‘Yours Hopefully’ Poetry and Song Concert with Michael Rosen & ReSound Acappella Choir

Wednesday 7th March Doors 7pm, Concert 7.30pm
St Barnabas Church, Mill Road, CB1 2BD

This event will be an uplifting concert of poems and songs about the ‘Power of Words’, including some new poems and vocal arrangements, especially commissioned by Historyworks for marking Holocaust Memorial Day 2018. The poems written and performed by Michael Rosen challenge racism and prejudice against migrants and refugees today.

ReSound Acappella Choir led by Rowena Whitehead will share their favourite songs of hope, solidarity, celebration and connection, drawn from different cultural traditions, all sung in glorious resonant harmony.

This event will be a fundraising event for CamCrag (Cambridge Convoy Refugee Action Group), a registered charity that sends regular convoys of volunteers with donations of clothing and other items to help refugees in Northern France and elsewhere. CamCrag will have an information stall.

Hot Snacks and Drinks from 7pm including traditional Andean savoury empanadas (both veggie and meat) and an Interval ‘Bring & Share’ cookies and cake table - chocolate cakes welcome! There will also be a fundraiser book stall for those purchasing books for Michael Rosen to sign.

Tickets £10. Discounts available for low income individuals. Please contact historyworkstv@gmail.com for details.
