invites you to join our

"SINGING MILL ROAD HISTORY" & ROMSEY 'R' UNVEILING CELEBRATION CONCERT

Saturday 1st December 11am -12pm

(rehearsal 10am to 10.45am)

St Philip's Church, 185 Mill Road, CB1 3AN

Join us for a free participatory concert where we will showcase songs and pieces commissioned by HistoryWorks for the project with lyrics by Michael Rosen and the CBBC's Horrible Histories songwriters, to celebrate our Victorian Railway History and the unveiling of the Sculpture by Cambridge artists, Harry Gray and Will Hill, called the Romsey 'R'

“SINGING MILL ROAD HISTORY” AT THE WINTER FAIR

SING-ALONG CONCERT & PROCESSION

Come and join the Historyworks team including Helen Weinstein, Mario Satchwell, Bethany Kirby and Tizzy Faller for a singing and movement rehearsal where our primary singers and the railway singers have a fantastic repertoire to share. You don't need to consider yourself a singer to participate.

10am to 10.45am Rehearsal & Voice warm-ups for Singers

10.45 Refreshment Break for Singers & Audience to be seated

11am to 11.45am Family-friendly Concert with Participation

11.45am Singing Procession to Cavendish Road to the Romsey 'R'

12 Noon to 12.15pm Sculpture Unveiling of the Romsey 'R' Sculpture by artists, Harry Gray and Will Hill with songs from the Railway Singer choirs and audience

12.30 Mill Road Winter Fair Parade starts from Salisbury Centre

Singers are invited to wear fancy dress (like Victorians or Railway Workers) and participate in the Parade with 2018 theme of 'Time Travelling'

We also have a prototype for making a Time Traveller's sonic screwdriver, which we suggest our Railway Singers make as a shaker, with a plastic bottle filled with dried pasta or beans or lentils, so that we can add some rhythm to rhymes!
